

Using DSL for Telecommuting

Leave your DSL modem on at all times.

When you want to log in to work:

1. Power on your PC or laptop.
2. Your computer will display your standard LAN login screen.
3. Proceed to log in just as you do at the office.

To conclude a work session:

1. Log off as you do at the office.
2. Your PC or laptop should power off.

General guidelines:

1. Leave your DSL modem on at all times.
2. Never press the Reset button on your DSL modem.
